Westchester Racing Association, Monday, October 6, to Saturday, October 25.

Queens County Jockey Club, Monday, October 27, to Saturday, November 8.

Washington Jockey Club, Monday, November 10, to Saturday, November 29.

A dispatch from Lexington, Ky., Monday, to the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, says: "John E. Madden, master of Hamburg Place, here, is highly indignant at the publication of the list of mares and the statement that he has sold them to Clarence H. Mackay, of New York, for a long price. Madden says today that he has made no such sale. The list was published here Saturday by the Thoroughbred Record and also an afternoon daily paper and regarded as authentic. It was stated that the official organ of the Jockey Club had recorded the mares as belonging to Mackay and entered by him in the $40,000 Hopeful Stakes for 1904.

In speaking of next year's prospects in racing, Judge Burke, in the Daily American of December 23, has this to say: "It bids fair to be a great year for horsemen. Almost every prospectus that I have seen for 1902 provides for a material increase in the added money to stakes. It is now apparent that the Coney Island Jockey Club is not to be distanced in the race for popularity. Its program for the coming June meeting shows the Swift and Spendthrift Stakes have been increased by $500 each, $2,000 being the added money now. The Zephyr and Spring have been increased to nearly double the sum formerly added to them. To the Vernal there has been an increase of $250. The Beacon Steeplechase, $2,500 added, and the Rockaway Cup, $1,000 in cash added, will both be appreciated by owners of jumpers. The Equality and Thistle, for three-year-olds and upward, are new stakes. The far-famed Suburban, value $10,000; the Mermaid, value $5,000; the Tidal, value $20,000; the June Handicaps, worth $5,500; the Double Event, $10,000; Swift, Spendthrift, Great Trial ($20,000), and other races all show the liberality of this progressive racing association."

According to reports from San Francisco, considerable interest is taken by horsemen at the Ingleside track in a yearling filly named Figaro that was bred at Sacramento by the County Down Stock Farm and by them sold to Burns & Waterhouse. The filly has shown a quarter of a mile in her work with 125 pounds in 23 1/2 seconds over the Oakland track, and the owners think so much of her that they have entered her in three $10,000 guaranteed stakes to be run at Saratoga in 1902. This is probably one of the most promising fillies shown in California at the present time. She is by Figaro-Guidon, she by Flood.

Following the purchase of Lady Minting for James R. Keene at the Newmarket Blood Stock Sale, comes the account of two more important sales in which Americans are interested. Rosegarland, a daughter of Boulevard—Rose d'Armon, was knocked down at the handsome figure of $5,000. She is for an American whose name was kept a secret. The mare is in foal by Bill of Portland. A Mr. McClennan paid $8,550 for Vagrant Maid, a mare in foal by Cylene. Lady Minting, the new Keene purchase, has been bred to the same stallion.

Among the passengers who arrived on the Celtic last Sunday was Charles Ballard, once a popular jockey on the American tracks. He was accompanied by his wife and child and came here to stay during the Christmas holidays, after which he will return to England and during next season train for J. D. Leon, a well-known English turf patron. Ballard expressed an opinion that the English racer is superior to the American bred animal and that as an all-around lover of racing the Englishman is unapproachable. He added that Danny Maher was surprisingly popular in England.

BROOKLYN STAKES.

Elsewhere in this issue Secretary McIntyre presents the terms of the fine list of stakes offered by the Brooklyn Jockey Club, entries to which will close at midnight January 2. The Brooklyn Jockey Club is deservedly popular with horse owners and this array of rich events is bound to receive their hearty approbation and patronage. Every stake offered, from the famous Brooklyn Handicap down the list to the Kensington Hurdle race, is a prize that any owner might well covet, and DAILY RACING FORM earnestly commends them to the consideration of western owners in particular. Entry blanks are ready at this office and will be furnished to all applicants.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Word comes from Lexington, Ky., that John E. Madden has refused to price Ogden, purchased of William Lakeland a few days ago, to J. N. Camden of the Hartland Stud, who lost his stallion Esher by death. Madden was never known before to refuse to price a horse. Ogden won the Futurity and after doing stud duty in Montana, raced with great success this year. Madden says he has wanted an English horse that could win in America and in Ogden he has a horse the value of which cannot be estimated.

Dr. H. E. Rowell has purchased a filly bred at the Down Stock Farm of California. He says that she worked an eighth when ready and asked in 12 seconds. As the doctor raced Figaro, her sire, he is more than pleased with his purchase, and intends sending several of his mares to the County Down next season to breed to his old favorite, Figaro.

Among the additional bookmakers who are expected to draw in at San Francisco before the first of the year are George Boles and Al Stokes, from New York, and Fred Cook, who is just out of a St. Louis hospital.

The weanling brother to Major Daingerfield, by Handspring—Mon Droit, has been sold by James B. Clay, of Lexington, Ky., to P. J. Dwyer, of New York, for $2,000.

Thomas Magee says that Dunn, the lad recently leased from Barney Schreiber by L. V. Bell, has the making of a first-class jockey.

F. M., Chicago. Romany was 7 to 5 to show in his race December 21. It was printed 3 to 5 through a clerical error.

Sevoy's six furlongs in 1:12 1/2 yesterday, was a new record for the Crescent City course.

Watercure has been priced to Burns & Waterhouse for $12,000.

Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start good except for Essences. Won easily; second driving. Decoy easily made the running and had the race assured from the start. Cromwell showed good early speed and, under a vigorous finish, was lucky to beat the badly handled Colonel Ballentyne. The latter was hopelessly pocketed for the first six furlongs and jumping on horses in front, where he finished fast. Grand Sachem failed badly after a good display of speed to the stretch. Essences showed roguish traits while at the post.

Winner—Ch. f. by St. Leonards—Handmaid.
Went to post at 4:24. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Dangerous Maid was lucky throughout and ran a good, fast race, but just lasted long enough to beat Matt Hogan. The latter got away poorly and raced on the outside of the entire field, covered much ground and was the best today. Saul of Tarsus showed the most early speed but quit in the stretch and may have been short. Afghan was weakly ridden in the last quarter and should have been third. Alzura went very well throughout. Tizona was shut off early. Novia ran badly. Chappie showed some early speed.

Winner—B. g. by Ben Strome—Aine.
Went to post at 2:32. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won ridden out; second driving. Ben Hullum got off with the leaders and well in motion went to the front quickly and opened up a gap but was tiring at the end and had all he could do to stall off Hayward Hunter. The latter was off tangled up but closed a big gap and was coming strongly at the end. He was cut off at the first turn and almost went down and would have won but for this. Goldaga ran his race. It was a weak finish on Ernest Parham. Harshberger quit before the horse did. Leenja tired in the stretch.

Semicolon ran to his best form and saved ground at the home turn. Master Mariner was under a hard drive all through the last furlong after coming wide at the stretch turn. Went to post at 4:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Death was well ridden. Coburn took him the short route and hugged the rail at all turns and was driving to the limit to stall off Arak and just managed to last long enough. Arak lost a couple of lengths by making a wide turn into the homestretch. He came again in the last fifty yards and was wearing the winner down. Farmer Bennett got third money in the last stride. Maple was cut off at the turn into the backstretch. She was poorly handled and might have been a contender with a good ride.
